

LOES is looking for long-term volunteers!

TO BE A PART OF THE ECOVILLAGE
MOVEMENT AND LIFESTYLE IN DENMARK

LANDSFORENINGEN
FOR ØKOSAMFUND

WHO ARE WE?

LOES, short for Landsforeningen for Økosamfund, is the Danish Ecovillage Network, dedicated to promoting sustainable living through the development and support of ecovillages in Denmark. It serves as a hub for information, inspiration, and collaboration among communities striving for ecological, economic, social, and world sustainability. Through its educational programs and advocacy efforts, LOES continues to inspire and empower individuals and communities to adopt sustainable lifestyles and create positive change.

WHO ARE WE?

LØS is the Danish network for ecovillages.

We bring together and represent around 30 ecovillages across the country and provide a platform for people who sympathize with the lifestyle

- Members
- Circles/Committees
- Projects

Camilla Nielsen-Englyst
Project Manager

Signe Glahn
Secretariat manager

Loulou
ESC mentor

DON'T WORRY ABOUT:

Accommodation

You will be staying in Hallingelille ecovillage where you will have your own furnished room with warm water and heater, but you will share common facilities such as bathroom and kitchen.

Food allowance: 165 Euro/1200 DKK monthly
+ eating 2-3 times weekly at the shared dinners.

Pocket money: 12 Euro per day (around 210-217 Euro monthly)

What to bring?

Nothing except specific personal necessities. As part of our commitment to sustainability, participants will be living in an ecovillage equipped with everything you need from clothing to basic furniture items so you can choose from a variety of clothes available at our second-hand free shop. By minimizing what you bring, you help us reduce waste and embrace a more sustainable lifestyle!

Transportation: Besides covering travel costs from your home country to Hallingelille ecovillage and back, you will have a bicycle and the transport for work-related travel is covered by the project.

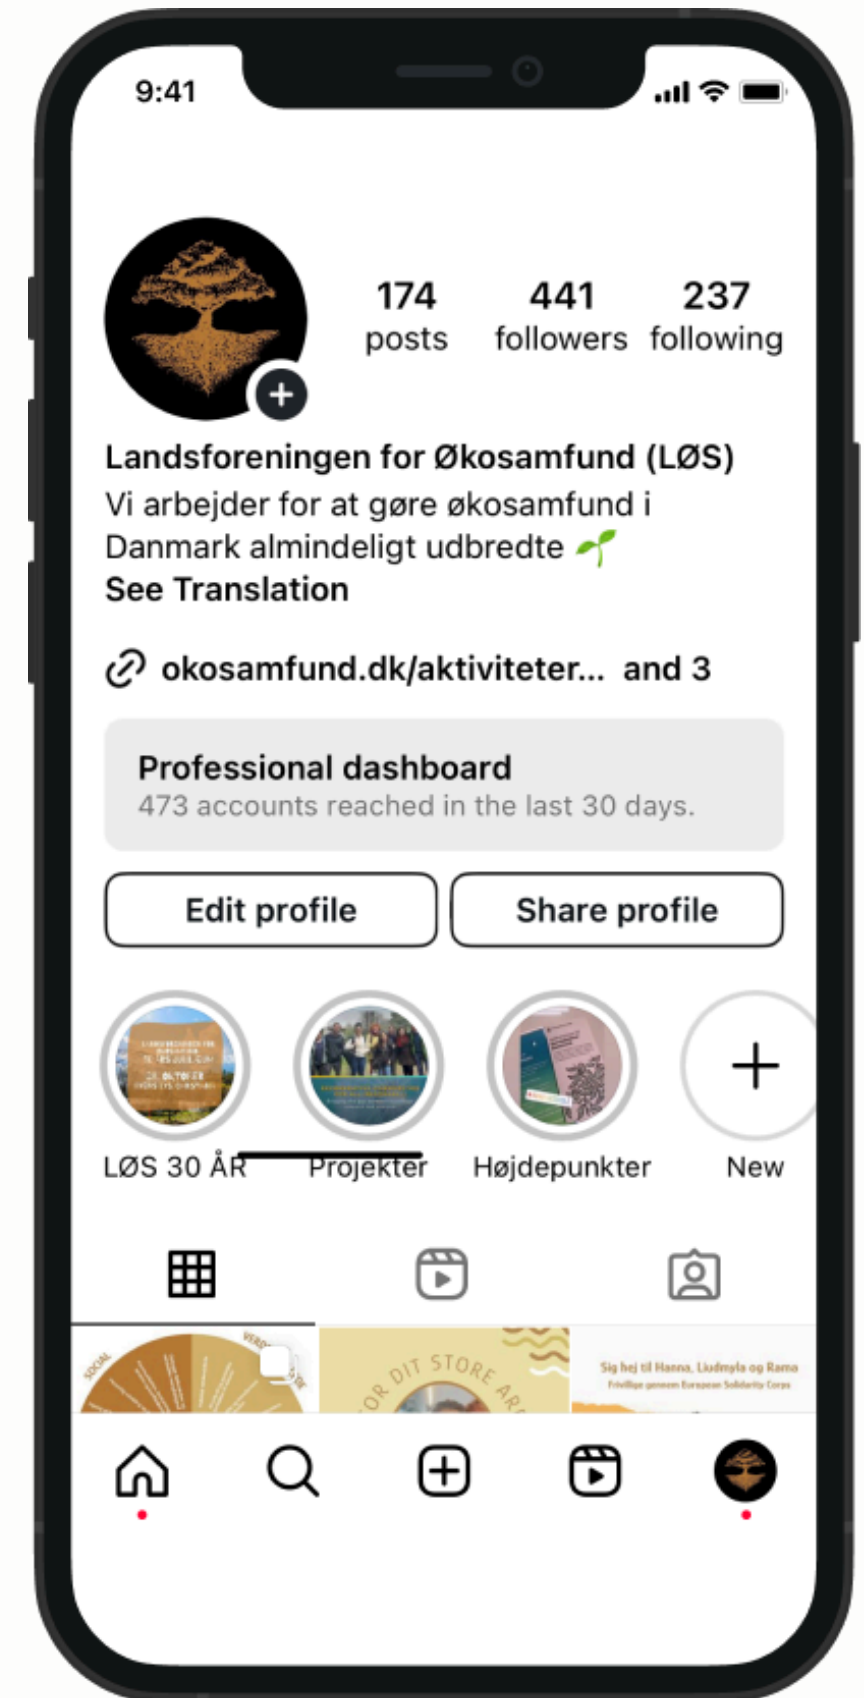

WHO ARE WE LOOKING FOR?

- We welcome all genders;
- Max. 30 years of age;
- Preferably someone who lives within the EU;
- Basic knowledge of English;
- Basic understanding of and an interest in sustainability;
- Preferably someone with a driver's license (not mandatory).

WHAT WILL YOU DO?

- Assist LOES in organizing impactful projects in Denmark, Ukraine and Ghana;
- Learn to adapt and be more flexible in a friendly organisational environment while dealing with unexpected changes and different challenges;
- Gain hands-on experience with social media by creating pictures, posts, and other engaging content;
- Develop hands-on skills: You will be planting, weeding, watering, and taking care of a greenhouse;
- Cook and enjoy common dinners with local residents;
- Be ready to help with tasks such as organising activities in a nearby asylum center;
- Engage in project work, educational activities, and member engagement/communication.

WHAT WILL YOU GET OUT OF IT?

1. Enhance your project management and communication skills by planning or assisting in organising events/outreach/projects.
2. Disconnect from urban life and reconnect with nature.
3. Develop your communication skills in English.
4. Learn some basic Danish to help you integrate better with the local community.
5. Adopt sustainable practices, like finding unique clothes in our second-hand collection.
6. Participate in a relaxing yoga class every Saturday.
7. Take advantage of the sauna, explore the forest, and swim in the beautiful lake.

APPLY BY FILLING OUT THIS FORM:

FOR ANY QUESTIONS,
CONTACT US:

E-Mail:

esc@okosamfund.dk

Instagram:

landsforeningen_for_okosamfund

Facebook:

Landsforeningen for Økosamfund